London, December 18.

A Proclamation iſſued by Lord Theodore before his Departure from Corſica, thereby appointing a Regency to exerciſe a Regal Authority during his Abſence, viz.

WE Theodore the Firſt, King of Corſica, do reſolve in Perſon to viſit the Continent, that the neceſſary Succours to be made uſe of againſt the Genoeſe, our declar'd Enemies, may be haſtened in order to drive them out of the fortify'd Places they poſſeſs in our Kingdom, which we rather chuſe to do, than to intruſt our Affairs with particular Perſons, our principal Intent being to be certainly inform'd of the Cauſe of the Delay of our promis'd Aſſiſtance. But that we may adminiſter the utmoſt Comfort to our People before our Departure, not only by informing them of the Motives of our Journey, but likewiſe by appointing able and faithful Governors of our Towns and Provinces, to the End that our Kingdom may not ſuffer by our Abſence, and that ſuch Supplies of Military Stores as we ſhall ſend before our Return may be receiv'd in Safety; we have therefore choſen and appointed, and by Virtue of this our Royal Proclamation do chuſe and appoint to be our Governors in Chief the ſeveral Perſons after nam'd, to whom we entruſt our whole Royal Authority and Power over our People, Towns, and Provinces, hereby commanding all our Subjects to ſhew due Obedience to our ſaid Governors, and to be aiding and aſſiſting to them in the Execution of their Authority, on Pain of incurring our Royal Diſpleaſure, being determin'd on our Return to beſtow Marks of our higheſt Grace and Favour on ſuch of our People as ſhall behave with Loyalty and Obedience, and to puniſh with all poſſible Severity all thoſe who ſhall act contrariwiſe. To the End that our Royal Will and Pleaſure may be known unto all, and be Matter of Joy to the Good, and of Terror to the Wicked among our Subjects, we direct and command theſe to be publiſh'd throughout our whole Kingdom. And to give this our Royal Proclamation a greater Authority, we have ſign'd it with our Hand, and affix'd our Royal Seal thereto. Given at Sartena the 14th of November, 1736.

Sign'd,

THEODORE.

Counter-ſign'd,

Count COSTA, Secretary of State, High Chancellor, & Keeper of the Seals.

We omit to inſert the Names of the Governors, it being of little Uſe to the Publick.

Dublin, Jan. 1. A Sailor who had been abroad about three Years, coming aſhore a few Days ſince, went to his Houſe, where he had left a young Wife: When he came in, he found her ſitting by the Fire with another Man, who ſaid to the Woman, ſhew the Gentleman a Room. He thereupon ask'd her, if ſhe did not know him, and where ſhe had got that Child, for there was one ſitting upon her Knee; ſhe reply'd, why dear Jack, I thought you were dead, and I'm married again. Married! Aye quoth the ſecond Husband. Very well, ſays John, but I marry'd her firſt, and by G---d I'll have her whilſt I'm on Shore, and you may be her husband whilſt I'm at Sea, and I'll pay half to maintain the Children. They came ſoon to an amicable Underſtanding, and the ſecond Husband is now Drawer to his Wife, hoping John will ſoon ſail that he may be Landlord again.

Jan 4. We hear that the Commiſſioners of the Inland Navigation have ſent abroad to procure the moſt skilful and able Perſons to conduct and finiſh the Canal from Lough-Neagh to Newry, which they deſign to proceed upon next Summer.

We hear alſo, that the Gentlemen of the Linnen Board have determin'd to ſettle the Manufacturers of Cambrick, who lately came from abroad, at Dundalk; a Town belonging to the Right Hon. the Lord Limerick: The Choice of which Place is univerſally approv'd, as there is no Reaſon to doubt, but that all Arts and Manufactures nufactures will flouriſh under the Protection and Encouragement of a Nobleman, who is ſo remarkable for his publick Spirit and Generoſity.

We doubt not but that it will give our Readers, and every Lover of his Country, a particular Pleaſure that we can aſſure them, that by the great Care and regular Attendance of the Truſtees of the Linnen Manufacture, and by their cloſe Inſpection into, and ſevere Puniſhment of the Frauds and Abuſes committed by the Lappers, that Iriſh Linnen has gain'd ſuch Credit, that the London Merchants buy it the ſame Confidence and Security as they do the ſtamp'd Goods of Holland, or any other Country.

Dublin, Jan. 8. We have an Account of a moſt melancholy Accident that happen'd on Monday Night laſt at Kilbrew in the County of Meath, the Seat of ----- Gorge, Eſq; ſome Words happen'd after Supper between the Hon. Henry St. Lawrence, Eſq; only Brother to the Lord Hoath, and Mr. Hamilton Gorge, Brother to the Gentleman of the Houſe; but Friends interpos'd, and Mr. St. Lawrence went to Bed. Mr. Gorge being vaſtly concern'd that any Difference ſhould ſubſiſt between 'em, (for they were intimate Friends) went into Mr. St. Lawrence's Chamber to explain and ask Pardon for the the Words that had given Offence: Here no third Perſon being preſent, they were heated into Paſſion, and a Caſe of Piſtols lying in the Window, they engag'd in a Duel in which Mr. St. Lawrence was ſhot into the Body, and is ſince dead of his Wound. He honourably clear'd Mr. Gorge, forgave him, and deſir'd he might not be proſecuted with Reſentment: This Gentleman's Death is lamented by all who had the Happineſs to know him.

From Newport in the County of Mayo we hear, that on the 2d Inſtant a Ship arriv'd under Sail in that Bay, about fifty Tons Burthen, laden with Iron, Nuts, &c. and no living Creature on board; ſhe was well fitted and victuall'd, and no Marks of Diſtreſs upon her; there are no Papers to diſcover any Thing relating to her.

Yeſterday came Advice, that the ſaid Ship was bound from Spain, and belongs to Mr. Edmund Comerford, and the Cargo to Mr. Martin Kilkelly, both Merchants of this City; that the Maſter Mr. John Ray, and all the Men, were ſafe arriv'd at Gallway, from whom we have theſe Particulars: That on the 1ſt Inſtant in a violent Storm, the Ship ſtruck upon a Rock near Fryer's Iſland, between Boſſin and Clagin Bay, which oblig'd them to take to their Boat, in which they got on Shore upon an uninhabited Iſland, where they continu'd 34 Hours; they afterwards took to the Main, and having made Land, travell'd 50 Miles thro' the Country, 'till they arriv'd at Gallway, giving over the Ship and Cargo for loſt; but by the indefatigable Care of John Brown of Weſtport, Eſq; both are preſerv'd; he having at the Hazard of many Lives, brought the Ship ſafe to an Anchor, and put a ſufficient Guard on board her to keep all Things ſafe for the Merchant and Owner.

Jan. 18 Laſt Saturday ----- M'Manus, Eſq; was declar'd Mayor of Londonderry by the Right Hon. the Privy Council.

Warſaw, Jan. 5. Some Days ago two Tartar Princes took Refuge in this Kingdom, and demanded Protection from the Crown General which he granted them: Not only the Porte, but Ruſſia has ſince demanded to have thoſe Princes deliver'd up, and the Government is very much embarraſs'd how to act in the Caſe, the Laws of Hoſpitality and Azyle being ſacred, and being impoſſible by breaking them to content both Ruſſia and the Porte at the ſame Time. They write from Caminieck, that the Ruſſian Miniſter who return'd thither from Conſtantinople is ſtill there, and was ſurpriz'd in paſſing through the Ottoman Army to find it in ſo miſerable a Condition, it being no more than a mere Rabble, without Order or Diſcipline, and in want of even common Neceſſaries.

Petersburg, Jan. 5. We are aſſur'd, that this Court has declar'd to the Porte, That the Empreſs cannot look upon, as ſatisfactory, the Declaration made by the Grand Signior, 'That the Tartars being an ungovernable, headſtrong, unciviliz'd Nation, his Highneſs could not hinder their Irruption into Ruſſia, and conſequently was not anſwerable for them;' becauſe her Czarian Majeſty was not ignorant at the ſame time, that upon all Occaſions, when the Porte was any Ways diſſatisfy'd with thoſe People, ſhe knew how to take very publick and very remarkable Vengeance on them, and has ſeveral Times depos'd their Chams, of which ſhe gave a very late Inſtance: That theſe are certain Proofs that the Grand Signior is always able, if he is ſo inclin'd, to force the Tartars to reſpect ſuch Neighbours, as he has a Mind to live in Friendſhip with: That therefore if her Czarian Majeſty is oblig'd to continue the War againſt the Porte, ſhe will always be perſuaded that the Grand Signior wilfully draws it upon himſelf, by refuſing the Satisfaction which it is in his Power to give. It is confirm'd, that the Perſian Embaſſador here has communicated to this Court the Treaty made by Kouli-Kan with the Porte: But if that new Prince had made any ſecret Articles with the Grand Signor, as was reported, our Miniſters would have been but very little diſturb'd at it; he having, in all Probability, Work enough upon his Hands to defend himſelf from the Malecontent Perſians, and the People that ſupport them.

Madrid. Jan. 7. The King acquainted the Lords of his Court, in a full Circle the 4th Inſt. with the entire Concluſion of the Accommodation between him and the Emperor: His Majeſty expreſſed himſelf in the following Manner: "I declare to you that all my Differences with the Emperor are ended, and that my Troops were to embark at Leghorn the 2d of this Month. I expect the Duke of Montemar in my Court before the End of this Month." Upon which all the Lords then present made their Compliments to his Majesty: Several of them likewise gave grand Entertainments upon that Occasion, and their Example was followed by the French, British and Venetian Ambassadors, to shew how much they shar'd in the publick Satisfaction. Don Sebastian de la Quadra is as much in the King and Queen's Favour as ever Don Joseph Patinho was, so that he is the only Minister with their Majesties at the Pardo; and tho' there is no certainty of the Count de Montijo's Return to London, yet the King continues his Pay as Ambassador, which seems very surprizing here.

End

Paris, Jan. 12. The 5th of this Month the Marquis de la Mina, Embassador from Spain, appear'd for the first Time at Court.

The same Day the King took 30 Lords of his Court along with him a Stag and Boar Hunting; Six of these Lords were in his own Coach and ten in another Coach, and the rest in a Voiture, call'd the Gondola: After Hunting he kept 21 of them to sup with him in his new Gallery over the Closets of his little Apartment. They began their Diversion by distributing the Twelfth-Day Cake, in which the Bean fell to the Son of M. Castelmoron, Great Wolf-Huntsman of France, and Son-in-Law of M. Hudicourt: Upon which the King ceded his Royalty for five Hours to the King of the Bean, and as often as his Beanish Majesty drank, the King of France huzza'd and cried as loud as the rest of the Company, the King drinks. the King drinks. As soon as the Fruit was serv'd up, and a whole Regiment of Dram Bottles set upon the Table, the Marquis de Vitry and the Marquis de Sassenage, who have very fine Voices, and understand Musick incomparably well, sung several Drinking Songs, in two Parts; and when they had done every other Lord sung in his Turn. Thus merrily and facetiously does our young, but great Monarch, live with his Nobles.

London, Jan. 20. From the London Gazette.

St. James's, Jan. 18. This Day the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London waited on his Majesty, to congratulate him on his safe Arrival, being introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Houshold; and Mr. Baron Thomson, their Recorder, made the Compliments in the following Speech.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London most humbly entreat your Majesty's Permission to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to Great Britain.

Your Presence, Sir, dispels all those Anxieties and Fears for your Welfare which your Absence occasion'd; your People are animated with fresh Joy to find themselves again under your Majesty's immediate Influence and Protection; and nothing could have alleviated the Want of that Blessing, but the mild and prudent Administration of your Majesty's Royal Consort.

These your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, being sensible of their Happiness in the full Enjoyment of all their Liberties, Rights and Privileges, during the whole Course of your Majesty's Reign, and having a firm Reliance on your Majesty's Vigilance and Care for their future Welfare and Prosperity, beg Leave to tender their grateful Acknowledgments, and to assure your Majesty of their most affectionate Zeal for the Support of your Royal Person and Government upon all Occasions.

To which his Majesty was pleas'd to return this most gracious Answer.

" I Thank you for this fresh Instance of your " Duty and Affection to my Person and " Government. You may depend upon the " Continuance of my Care to preserve Peace " and Tranquility, and to promote the Trade " and Welfare of this great and flourishing " City.

They all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand, and his Majesty was pleas'd to confer the Honour of Knighthood on George Champion and John Lequinese, Aldermen; and on William Rous and Benjamin Rawlins, the two Sheriffs.

They were afterwads introduc'd to her Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Grantham, her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain; and Mr. Baron Thomson made their Compliments to her Majesty as followeth.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London, humbly beg leave to congratulate your Majesty on the King's safe Arrival.

'Tis with grateful Hearts that these his Majesty's most faithful Subjects presume to offer their humble Acknowledgments to your Majesty, for your just and prudent Administration during his Majesty's Absence.

To your Wisdom and Conduct, Madam, we owe the allaying all Discontents, and the suppressing all publick Disorders. And whatever Divisions may happen, the People still universally confess your Majesty's Goodness, your Piety, and all those Virtues which make your Royal Example a Pattern to this Age, and must have a happy Influence for the Benefit of Posterity.

To which her Majesty was pleased to return a most gracious Answer; and they all had the Honour to kiss her Majesty's Hand.
